

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

REPORT OF THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA

SEPTEMBER 17-18, 2011

TO: NRA Board of Directors and Executive Council

The Nominating Committee met at NRA Headquarters in Fairfax, Virginia on August 27, 2011, for the purpose of nominating individuals for election to the NRA Board of Directors in 2012. Members present were: Roger K. Bain; Matt Blunt; Patricia A. Clark; James S. Gilmore III; Graham Hill; Curtis S. Jenkins; Robert E. Sanders; and Committee Secretary, Edward J. Land, Jr. Committee members George K. Kollitides II and Riley B. Smith participated via telephone.

The Committee elected Patricia A. Clark as Chairman and Curtis S. Jenkins as Vice Chairman.

The Nominating Committee is a screening process designed to determine the most qualified candidates to be recommended to NRA voting members for election to the NRA Board of Directors. The Committee has made every effort to select the best possible candidates for nomination.

Committee members set aside friendships and personal relationships and placed considerable weight on protection of the Second Amendment; leadership abilities; business expertise; legislative and financial experience; understanding of the importance and need for NRA's wide range of safety, training and shooting programs; past performance; and potential capabilities.

The Committee received a total of 98 recommendations. Fifty-six individuals were Life members and, therefore, eligible for consideration. The Committee reviewed all eligible candidates--incumbents seeking reelection, and candidates who either submitted themselves for consideration or were recommended by other NRA members.

Service on the NRA Nominating Committee is an honor and a serious responsibility. The Committee has an obligation to select those candidates who are the most dedicated, best qualified, and have the expertise and freedom needed to best serve the needs of the NRA and its members.

The Committee nominated 29 individuals as being the best qualified to meet the needs of the Association at this time.
